

ORGANISATIONAL MANAGEMENT REVIEW

HARNESS THE FULL POWER OF YOUR WORKFORCE

Our Organisational Management Review is an in-depth assessment of the inner workings and culture of your company.

OMR provides solutions for change management and corporate challenges when:

- There is a change of leadership in your organisation
- A company is bought or merged with another
- There are problem areas within your organisation (vision and strategy, leadership, talent development and succession planning, vital organisational and people issues)

It provides all manner of information and insights in a unique and impactful way which allow management to understand:

- Who is who
- Where to find potential
- What the issues are
- What are the levels of morale and engagement
- Which urgent adjustments are needed
- How to reframe goals
- How to review communication

THE OMR PROCESS

Our experienced consultants will have an initial consultation with you to identify the pain points

They will then work closely with you to set the parameters of the review and discuss the organisational and logistical details

All details for the review including pricing will then be confirmed in writing for peace of mind

Scientifically-based gathering of relevant people and organisational data

Running review day(s) of up to 6 participants per day using a purpose-designed questionnaire with a clear session summary and feedback to each participant

The report of the key findings with recommendations will then be presented with objectives, a prioritised action plan and an effective communication proposal

OMR has provided clear focus and successful change management solutions to some of the world's largest organisations.
